

Barnaby's Big Jump

Grade Level: Grade 3

Barnaby Bunny loved to jump. His ears flopped as he leaped high. He practiced jumping every single day. Barnaby jumped over small rocks. He jumped over tiny puddles too. His legs were strong and fast. One sunny morning, Barnaby saw a big log. It looked very hard to jump over. He felt a little bit scared. Barnaby thought about giving up. But he remembered his friends cheered him on. So Barnaby took a deep breath. He ran and jumped with all his might. Over the log he went! Barnaby landed softly on green grass. He felt proud of his big jump. Jumping made Barnaby a happy bunny. He knew practice helped him grow stronger. He always tried his best.

Questions:

1. What did Barnaby Bunny love to do?
 - A. Dig holes
 - B. Eat carrots
 - C. Jump high
 - D. Sleep all day
2. Why did Barnaby keep trying to jump over the log?
 - A. He wanted to eat the log.
 - B. He remembered his friends cheered him on.
 - C. He was angry at the log.
 - D. He wanted to hide from a fox.
3. How did Barnaby feel after he jumped over the big log?
4. What important lesson can we learn from Barnaby about trying new things?